Today's bulletin cover is intentionally left blank. It is meant to be a space for you to create your own artwork. We'll engage the story of Job, an individual who has lost everything. He laments and questions God, and God speaks to job out of the whirlwind. As you worship this morning, there are writing tools near where you sit (or where you found the bulletin). Use them to craft your art piece... where is God speaking in our midst?

Welcome and Opening Sentences

We gather to listen to the voice of Jesus say, “Come, follow me!” But will you follow when Jesus also calls you to release the hold wealth has on you?

We want to follow Jesus anywhere he leads, and we can with God’s help.

We gather to remember all that God has taught us through scripture, tradition, reason, and experience. But what about when we have to put what we know into action?

We want to put our faith into action, and we can with God’s help.

We gather to live into God’s economy of abundance, recognizing the riches of the prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness that surround us. But what about when the world tempts us back into scarcity?

We want to turn away from scarcity and choose God’s abundance, and we can with God’s help.

We gather to shine as a beacon of a new way of living where following Jesus means sharing in God’s abundant gifts together. But will you keep shining when others try to pull you astray, putting the pursuit of wealth before the pursuit of God?

With God’s help, we will resist the pull of wealth and the fear of scarcity and pursue the way of love, abundance, and flourishing for all creation. Amen.

Centering and Prayer

PROCLAMATION

Scripture Reading

Job 38:1-7, (34-41)

Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind:

“Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge?

Gird up your loins like a man; I will question you, and you shall declare to me.

“Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?

Tell me, if you have understanding.

Who determined its measurements—surely you know!

Or who stretched the line upon it?

On what were its bases sunk,

or who laid its cornerstone

when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy?

“Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, so that a flood of waters may cover you?
Can you send forth lightnings, so that they may go and say to you, ‘Here we are’?”

Who has put wisdom in the inward parts or given understanding to the mind?
Who has the wisdom to number the clouds?
Or who can tilt the waterskins of the heavens
when the dust runs into a mass
and the clods cling together?

“Can you hunt the prey for the lion or satisfy the appetite of the young lions,
when they crouch in their dens or lie in wait in their covert?
Who provides for the raven its prey, when its young ones cry to God and wander about for lack of food?

This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Prayer of Sending

... Help us, Lord, to remember.
To repent,
To soften,
To turn back to you.
May we not waste away, crops lost to the storm
May you have mercy on us, redeem us, and replant us
After the whirlwind. Amen.

Closing Sentences

May the God of hope fill us with all joy and peace
through the power of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.
Bless the Lord.
The Lord's name be praised.
Go in peace.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, your thoughts are not our thoughts, nor are your ways our ways.

You look at the most wounded soul and see, still unstirred, beauty and love.

We scan our neighbors, colleagues, teachers, and strangers, anxious to find their flaws.

You see our lives in the context of all time, and yet, you make time for waiting, for yearning, for putting things in perspective.

We demand instant results and look for tomorrow, or the next 'big thing,' before savoring today, or even this very moment.

You know the depth of our brokenness, so you came among us, to bring us healing and wholeness.

We deny your healing embrace, instead turning towards other ways to numb our pain.

We pray God, longing for your liberation, longing for your grace, longing for your mercy.

Forgive in us what has turned away from you and one another, draw near to our wounds, and bring us into wholeness.

(Continue to offer prayers in silence.)

Children's Bible Presentation

Receiving Bibles today are Quentin Case Gehrke and Noelle Elise Ruggeberg.

Are we willing to renew our baptismal promise?

We renew our baptismal promise to children and their families to tell them of God's love for them, to help them know all that Christ teaches us, and to strengthen their family ties with the household of God, by our fellowship together.

Please join in prayer.

... Blessed be your name, God of Love, for the ways you have shown us your love—in our lives, in the lives we encounter, and in the stories we claim.

Renew within us a commitment to your story of grace, mercy, and love. Through these stories and our study of them, may we trust your wisdom, and have courage, to seek justice and claim the story of hope, so that others might see the depth of your love. In Jesus name we pray. Amen.

Second Scripture Reading

RESPONDING AND SEALING

Sacrament of Baptism

Christopher Hayes and Megan Wolfe present their son Andrew Basil Hayes, born November 27, 2022, for baptism.

*Affirmation of Faith The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived of the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. He descended into hell. The third day He arose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

For the Beauty of the Earth
Chancel Choir

John Rutter

For the beauty of the earth, for the beauty of the skies,
For the love which from our birth over and around us lies,
Lord of all, to thee we raise, this our joyful hymn of praise.

For the beauty of each hour, of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale and tree and flower, sun and moon and stars of light;
Lord of all, to thee we raise, this our joyful hymn of praise.

For the joy of love, brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth, and friends above, for all gentle thoughts and mild,
Lord of all, to thee we raise, this our joyful hymn of praise.

For each perfect gift of thine, to our race so freely given,
Grace human and divine, flow'rs of earth and buds of heav'n,
Lord of all, to thee we raise, this our joyful hymn of praise.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Creation's Heart, we look around and see how we fall short in our attempts at faithfulness. We often do things, not because it is what you call us to do, but in hopes of earning favor with you or others. We can become so self-absorbed, we cannot see the suffering and struggles of friends, family, strangers. We are so desperate to get to the front of the line, we push aside the very ones you seek to honor. Forgive us, Holy One. Remind us that the cup we are offered overflows with grace, that the waters of baptism cleanse and make us new, and that Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, is the One who calls us to service, standing by our side, as we seek to be faithful to your love and the calling you place on our lives.

WEEKLY CHALLENGES

1) Gift your bookmark to someone and write a note of encouragement. 2) Think about your favorite Bible story. Read it again. Think about a character not written in the story, but whom you imagine to be there. Re-write the story from their perspective. 3) Try reading a book in the Bible that you haven't read before. Need an idea? Ask one of the pastors for a recommendation!
