Christian Ministry Scholarship

About Our Scholarship Program

Since 1984, Presbyterian Women (PW) have supported Christian education through its scholarship program. With funds from PW participants and endowed gifts, Presbyterian Women grant scholarships to individuals who are interested in educational opportunities in Christian Ministry.

Presbyterian Women define “Christian Ministry” as service to God and his people that improves or enhances the ability to spread Christian faith to others.

Scholarships may be awarded to any First Presbyterian participant, member, staff, or pastor who seeks to increase their knowledge and skills in religious studies through such avenues as a conference, seminar, camp, formal studies, or activity/event.

Christian Ministry Scholarship Funding

Presbyterian Women have a rich history of scholarship giving as it honors dedicated women and men who were active members of First Presbyterian Church, vital participants in the work of PW, and have given financial gifts to establish scholarships to spread the Christian faith to others.

1984

The Doris S. Barnett Endowment Fund was established to provide scholarships for women and men in Christian ministry.

1990

The Joanne Kooyers Endowment Fund was established by the Kooyers family to provide scholarships for women training for Christian ministry.

1999

The Mable Rugen Endowment Fund was established to provide scholarships for Christian women and men.

ONGOING FUNDING

First Presbyterian Women established a scholarship fund several years ago that is funded by the ongoing gifts First Presbyterian women give every year. This scholarship is for any First Presbyterian church related recipient or recipients seeking to grow in Christian faith.
